TOP NEWS FROM THE ELIZABETHTOWN PACKAGING PLANT

February/March 2022

General Manager John Keith and Mayor Jeff Gregory receive a construction update on the Kruger Packaging Elizabethtown Plant. (Dec. 2, 2021)

"We want to congratulate the Kruger family for their newest investment and thank them for placing their trust in Elizabethtown."

— Mayor Jeff Gregory

KRUGER E'TOWN MARKS MAJOR MILESTONE

Kruger Packaging team members and Elizabethtown Mayor Jeff Gregory recently visited the T. J. Patterson Industrial Park to get an exclusive look at the exciting developments, including the installation of the packaging plant's walls, occurring at the future site of the Kruger Packaging Elizabethtown Plant.

"The City of Elizabethtown is beyond excited to welcome Kruger Packaging to our Industrial Park," said Mayor Gregory. "We want to congratulate the Kruger family for their newest investment and thank them for placing their trust in Elizabethtown."

The $114 million facility is set to open summer 2022 and will be Kruger Packaging's first-ever American packaging plant.

MEET THE TEAM: JOHN KEITH

General Manager John Keith is a senior sales and operations management executive with 30+ years of experience. We are putting his decades-long track record of success to good use as we get closer to the grand opening of the Kruger Packaging Elizabethtown Plant.

JOIN OUR TEAM

We have immediate openings for production and maintenance positions. Starting pay is $16-$32 hourly depending on experience. We also offer medical, dental and vision coverage as well as vacation and sick pay beginning on day one. Team members are also eligible to participate in our 401K and matching program.
